

ADAMS, SARAH MARVINE (McCANN)
APRIL 3, 1927–DECEMBER 17, 2000

The Platte County Record-Times
December 27, 2000

Memorial services for Sarah Marvine Adams, 73, were held Thursday, Dec. 21, at 10:30 a.m. at Wheatland Bible Church with Rev. Denzil G. Mauk officiating.

Mrs. Adams died Sunday, Dec. 17, at Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

Sarah was born April 2, 1927, in Pike County, Ohio, the daughter of William T. and Flora Mae (Ackley) McCann. She was reared and educated in Fayette County, Ohio, and graduated from Midway High School. Sarah married Don Butler on Jan. 30, 1946, in Kentucky and they later divorced. She lived in Ohio, Iowa and West Virginia before moving to Wheatland in 1981. She worked in for Services for Seniors in Wheatland until her retirement in 1989.

On April 29, 1996, she married William Donald Adams in Wheatland. Sarah was active in Bible Study groups and was an avid reader. She was quite a sports fan, supporting any team from Ohio except the Cincinnati Reds—she really liked the Chicago Cubs. Her family was of prime importance to her.

Sarah is survived by her husband, William "Don" Adams of Kent, Wash.; four children, Richard Butler of Danville, Ind., Rodney Butler of Elkins, W.V., Rebecca Hepker and husband, Keith of Wheatland and Wendy Taylor and husband, Ralph of Canton, Ill.; three sisters, Erma Gordon of Bloomingburg, Ohio, Mary Stafford of Neosho, Mo., and Midge Hornbeck of Arizona; thirteen grandchildren; and thirteen great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a son, Teddy Butler; and several siblings.

Memorials to Wheatland Bible Church, P.O. Box 685, Wheatland, WY 82201 would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
