

Pioneer resident dies in Denver

6-6-1961
William I. Adams, 92 years of age, passed away in Denver, Colo. after an extended illness. Mr. Adams was born in Iowa December 9, 1868.

He had lived in this area since 1911, and only for the last several years had made his home in Denver, where he departed this life Tuesday, June 6.

He is survived by two sons, Fred I. of Walden, Colo., and Donald of Nevada; four daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Hudson, Boulder, Colo., Mrs. Helen E. Hudson, Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Mildred Hudson, Grand Junction, Colo. and Mrs. Alice Smith, Flint, Mich.; 20 grandchildren and 42 great grandchildren. His wife, Anna Campbell Hudson, whom he married March 28, 1895, preceded him in death in 1947.

Services were held Monday, June 12, in the Nazarene church with Rev. Eugene Engelbrecht presiding. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Joe Hudson, James Hudson, Dennis Hudson, Dale Hudson, Jerry Hudson and Harold Brownwood.