

ADAMSON, GEORGE WASHINGTON

May 4, 1881-December 1, 1938

George W. Adamson was born May 4, 1881 in Auburn, Nebraska, and passed away in Wheatland at the home of a niece, Dollie Warren, on December 1.

Since coming to Wyoming some 20 years ago, he had not taken up any permanent residence. About five years ago, he, with his wife, professed faith and joined the Nazarene church. He was also in sympathy with the Salvation Army work.

In 1920 he was married to Rachael Pierceson at Holyoke, Nebraska, and to this union two children were born, George W. and Marie. Surviving are four brothers, Will of Wrap, Colorado, John of Ringwood, Oklahoma, Albert of Straton, Nebraska, Frank of Benkleman, Nebraska; five sisters, Lizzie Potter and Susie Warning of Benkleman, Nebraska, Blanch Bomblin of Gleine, Oklahoma, Mrs. Cap Crites of Lohoma, Oklahoma, and Stella Crites of Hillsdale; one step-son and many other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his father and mother, one brother and one sister. He was 56 years old at the time of his death.

Funeral services were conducted from the Copley Funeral Home on Sunday, December 4, at 1 p.m. with Rev. I.C. Noyce officiating and burial was in the local cemetery.
