

innocent.

But accidents still happen.

Brandy stresses for all parents to keep anything a child could climb on away from windows.

“Tie the cords up,” she said. “Cut the loop. Get the old ones replaced.”

Nothing can be done for Mikayla now, but death can serve as a reminder for everyone who loves a child.

Mikayla’s loss is felt by many.

“She was my best friend, I lived for her,” Harvey said. “She touched everyone’s life she came in contact with.”