

Donald Jack Carberry

January 25, 1933-June 1, 2001

Services for Donald Jack "Grandpa Don" Carberry, 68, will be held Wednesday, June 6, at 10 a.m. at the First Christian Church in Wheatland with Rev. Andy Gudahl officiating. Interment will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Carberry died Friday, June 1, at the Life Care Center in Casper.

Donald was born Jan. 25, 1933, in Wheatland, the son of John and Bernette (Miritz) Carberry. He was reared and educated in Wheatland and joined the United States Army serving in the Korean Conflict. Following his discharge, Donald returned to Wheatland and worked on the Glendo Dam project. He then worked in heavy construction as a welder-mechanic on various construction jobs in the United States. The past four years he has resided in Casper, working until the time of his death. Donald married Olive "Dolly" (Baker) Lipps in 1955.

Grandpa Don is survived by two children, John Carberry and wife, Jeanine and Donnis Throne and husband, Lennie all of Wheatland; two sisters, Betty Hamilton of Wheatland and Leola Carberry of Utah; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Dolly in 1965; two brothers, Ron and Robert Carberry; and three sisters, Jolene Fish, Barbara Carberry and Carolyn Montoya.

Serving as pallbearers will be Cory Gillaspie, Mark Carberry, Jonathan Weaver, Adam Hitt, Guy Johnson and Brian Steele.

Memorials to the Donald J. Carberry Memorial Fund, in care of Community First Bank, P.O. Box 908, Wheatland, WY 82201 would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland is in charge of the arrangements.
