

CARBERRY, JOHN CHESTER
September 22, 1889-January 3, 1955

A sudden heart attack claimed the life Monday of John C. Carberry, 65, of Wheatland. Death came while Mr. Carberry was helping drill a water well at Hubbard's Cupboard. He had been a local resident since 1910, and was employed by C & C Well Drilling company. He worked for the Swan company for several years.

Carberry was born in Summerville, Mass., September 22, 1889. Survivors are his wife Bernetta M. Carberry to whom he was married November 2, 1926; two sons, Robert J. of Riverton and Don J. of Wheatland; four daughters, Mrs. Keith Fish, Cheyenne, Mrs. Betty Hamilton, Yoder, and Carolyn and Leota at home. A sister, Mrs. Stacia Siebert of Summerville, Mass. and three grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held this morning (Thursday) at the Schrader chapel at eleven o'clock. In charge of the services were Elder Durney and Elder Headman, and burial was in the Wheatland cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Lance Guthrie, Don Willcuts, Lawrence Rosentreter, Harold Garrett, Lew Stofflet and Rosco Comstock.