

CHAMBERS, DAISY PEARL TURNER

December 8, 1896-November 6, 1976

Services were held Thursday, November 11, 1976, for Daisy Pearl Chambers, a former Wheatland resident, at the Wheatland Cemetery. Mrs. Chambers passed away at the age of 79, November 6, 1976, at Los Angeles, Calif., after an extended illness.

She was born in Yoncalla, Oregon, December 8, 1896. She moved to Wheatland with her family from Kansas as a young girl. She completed her education here and immediately moved to Los Angeles where she has made her home ever since.

In death, she is survived by her husband, Calvin S. Chambers; a daughter, Della Mae Lyford of San Jacinto, California; two brothers, George Turner of Wheatland and Percy Turner of California; three sisters, Gladys (Mrs. George) Waln of Wheatland, Della Miner of Loveland, Colo., and Lucy Johnson of Cheyenne; three grandchildren; eight great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements and Rev. Elliott Graves officiated at the services.
