

CHEEVER, DORIS F. MOORE

June 12, 1922-March 2, 2009

Doris F. Cheever, 86, of Cheyenne, died Monday, March 2, 2009 at the Davis Hospice Center.

She was born June 12, 1922 in Wheatland and had lived in Cheyenne since 1941.

Doris and her twin sister were the first twins born in the Wheatland Hospital. She was the youngest of six children born to Charles Thomas and Leona (Hixson) Moore and was raised on a ranch outside of Wheatland.

She graduated in 1940 from Wheatland High School and married Milton D. Kiser in 1940 with whom she had two daughters. She later married Don Cheever in 1960.

Mrs. Cheever was a hairdresser for 53 years, retiring at the age of 79. Doris was a very active member of the First Christian Church and very active in volunteer work with the Botanic Gardens, Cheyenne Healthcare Center, Meals on Wheels and hospital visitations.

Mrs. Cheever is survived by Everett Rhoads; two daughters and sons-in-law, Gwen and Ken Stroff of Lander and Carolyn and Wally Franzen of Cheyenne; a sister, Beula O'Bryan of Wheatland; seven grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren, and nine great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Don Cheever in 1996; her parents; a brother, Tom Moore; and three sisters, Margaret Gaddis, Dorothy Carey and Virgie Preuit. She was loved dearly by family and friends and will be greatly missed.

Memorial services will be at 10:00 a.m. Friday at the First Christian Church with Rev. Kurt Borgaard officiating. Interment of her urn will be at 2:00 p.m., Friday at the Wheatland Cemetery.

Cremation has taken place at Cheyenne Memorial Gardens. Services are under the direction of Wiederspahn-Radomsky Chapel of the Chimes.
