

CLARK, CHESTER A.
June 22, 1890-July 12, 1953

Chester A. Clark, 63, a former Wheatland resident who moved to Cheyenne last winter to make his home, died at a Cheyenne hospital July 12, following an extended illness.

Born June 22, 1890 at Hopkins, Mo., Mr. Clark homesteaded in the Chugwater community in 1910, where he and his family lived until 1932 when they came to the Wheatland flats. They resided here until failing health forced Mr. Clark to retire from farming a few months ago.

He is survived by his wife, Etta A., a son, Earl A. of Alvarado, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Doris N. House of Cheyenne; and three sisters, Mrs. Mattie M. Cone of Cheyenne, Mrs. Grace Stephens of Akron, Ohio and Mrs. Edna Bronson of St. Joseph, Mo.; and two grandsons. Two brothers preceded him in death.

Rev. J.B. Milstead officiated at the funeral services which were held at the Schrader chapel Wednesday, July 15, at two p.m. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Pallbearers were Don Willcuts, John Ballard, Russell Chasteen, Jack White, Eddie Miller and Chris Franzen.
