

William Henry Clark

Graveside services and interment for William Henry Clark, 69, were held Monday, Feb. 7, 1994, at 2 p.m. at the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland with Pastor Gary D. Robbins of the Pioneer Baptist Church officiating.

Mr. Clark died Friday, Feb. 4, 1994, at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

He was born October 18, 1924, in Wheatland, the son of Mervin K. and Neva F. (Pulver) Clark. He was reared on the family homestead near Dwyer, north of Wheatland. He received his education in country schools, at Guernsey and Wheatland. He graduated from the Guernsey High School.

He was married to Arlene M. Cochran in Wheatland on Dec. 3, 1944. They ranched on the family homestead until the time of his death.

He attended auctioneer school in Mason City, Iowa, and he did local auctioneering with Alec Fresorger. His love and passion was his family and the ranch way of life.

He is survived by his wife, Arlene of Wheatland; three children, Jo Herman and husband, Darrell D., William M. Clark, and Robert A. Clark and wife, Penny S. all of Wheatland; one brother, Ed Clark of Wheatland; seven grandchildren, Darrell W. (Pete) Herman, Larry D. Herman, Roberta (Birdie) Clark, B.J. Clark, Mike Clark, William (Bud) Clark, and Shawn Clark; and four great grandchildren, Trevor D., Scotty, Steven and Sean Herman. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Serving as honorary pallbearers were Larry DuVall, Frank Hester, George Woolsey, Doug Runyan, Lex Madden, Shawn Madden, Duane Walker, Mark Popoff, Glen Hall, and Dr. Edward G. Howshar.

A memorial to the M&S Oxygen would be appreci-