

9-1-1988 Lela Marie Cochran

Services for Lela Marie Cochran, 94, who died in Wheatland Sept. 1, 1988, were held Saturday, Sept. 3, 1988, in the Frontier Baptist Church in Wheatland at 1:30 p.m. with Dan Barcus, minister.

Born July 9, 1894, in Medford, Iowa, she was the daughter of James and Margaret (Weaver) Harsh. She and Guy Cochran were married in Iowa, March 20, 1913. In 1928 they moved to Wheatland where they farmed west of town. They farmed until Guy's death in 1971. In 1973 Lela moved into town where she spent her retirement years.

Cochran was a member of the Christian Church, the Farm Bureau, the Country Women's Club and the Golden Age Club.

She is survived by two daughters: Arlene Clark of Wheatland and Mildred Jessen of Billings, Mon.; 13 grandchildren, 33 great-grandchildren and numerous great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Guy Cochran, a son Glen, a daughter Guylene, and brother Delbert Harsh.

Memorial contributions in her name may be made to the Cancer Society.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery with Darrell Herman Jr., Troy and Steve Cochran, Bob Clark, Larry Herman, and Jim Staley Jr. serving as pall-bearers.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
