

YOUNG BUSINESS MAN DIES SUDDENLY

P.C.R. — 6-12-30
DAVID BALD COCHRANE

The community was shocked and grieved to learn that David Bald Cochrane had died at six o'clock on Tuesday morning, at the Wheatland General Hospital, following a brief illness. David Bald was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. David Cochrane. He was born at their ranch home at Owen, Wyo., on December 12, 1894, making his home with his parents on the ranch, now owned by H. Ralph Hall, until his father disposed of his ranching interests and moved to Wheatland that David Bald might have the advantages of the schools here. Mr. Cochrane entered into business, investing in real estate and opening the Capitol Market, in which his son was made partner when he finished his education. David was an unusually handsome boy and won friends easily by his friendly disposition. He is a veteran of the World War, a member of the American Legion, a Past Master of the Masonic Lodge of Wheatland and a Past Patron of the Eastern Star. He was commanding officer of the troops stationed at the armory here for some time, and was active in all patriotic events. He served in the Tank Corps over seas during the World War. He was Patron of the local Eastern Star for two years. He is a 32nd degree Mason and a member of the Mystic Shrine.

To his parents he was a wonderful son, to his friends a loyal, steadfast friend, to his town a loyal citizen, to his Country a true patriot. The whole-hearted sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved ones. Besides his immediate family he leaves to mourn his loss, his aunt, Mrs. Dan McUlvan, of Cheyenne, and a number of other relatives.

The funeral will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Masonic Temple, with burial in the Wheatland cemetery, under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge.
