

Esther Fern Randall-Coe

Aug. 25, 1909 - Sept. 28, 2002

Graveside services and interment for Esther Fern Randall-Coe, 93, were held Tuesday, October 8th 2002, at 11:00 a.m. in the Wheatland Cemetery at Wheatland, Wyoming, with Andy Gudahl, Minister of the First Christian Church officiating.

Mrs. Coe died Saturday, September 28th, 2002, in Bullhead City, Arizona.

Esther was born August 25th, 1909, in Wheatland, the daughter of Charlie and Emma (Akerblade) Randall. She was reared and educated in Wheatland and married Jack Coe in Wheatland on December 24, 1928. They made their home in Wheatland until 1942 when they moved to California. In April of 1946, they moved to Southeastern Kansas, living there until 1948. They then moved to South Dakota where Jack worked on ranches and later was custodian at Philip, South Dakota at Hans P. Petersen Hospital, the same hospital where Esther worked. A few years after Jack's death, Esther moved to New Mexico, and lived there until she was offered a job with the hospital in Hot Springs, South Dakota, as head dietitian, and retired from there in 1977. After retiring, she moved to Bullhead City; a brother, Eldon Randall of Wheatland; stepdaughter, Jaunita Ernst of Branson, Missouri; six grandchildren, Charlie, Carrol, Whitney, David, Susan, and Kathy; three great grandchildren, Stacey, Danny, and Carri; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Esther was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Jack on September 16, 1967; a son, Jack Coe Jr. on January 28, 1992; six sisters and one brother.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
