

FUNERAL OF MRS. D. F. COE

The body of Mrs. Dan F. Coe, whose death in St. Joseph's hospital, Denver, January 22, was reported in The Record last week, was taken direct to Guernsey where it was met by representatives of the Longwith-Richards Funeral Home, of Wheatland, which had charge of the arrangements.

Services were held at the family residence in Guernsey at 1 o'clock Sunday, the sermon being preached by Rev. Morton, pastor of the Guernsey community church. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Mabel Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Malin, was born August 22, 1878 in Tama county, Iowa, where she grew to womanhood, was united in marriage with Dan F. Coe, whose parents like hers were pioneers of that county. Mr. and Mrs. Coe with their children, Howard, now of Cheyenne, and Myrtle, now Mrs. Lloyd Sadler of Guernsey, came to Wheatland some years ago and lived in Wheatland before moving to Guernsey.

Mrs. Coe was well known and beloved here, and her death caused much sorrow to a wide circle of friends. Few knew of the serious nature of her illness, causing her death to come as a great shock.

Mrs. Coe was a beautiful woman whose beauty of feature only served to reveal the beauty of her personality, a warm and devoted friend, a cherry wise counsellor, a wonderful mother, wife and homemaker ever ready to answer any call for help with a smile and a presence that was in itself a tonic. truly can the lines of the poet apply to her:

Not dead—oh no, but borne beyond the shadows,

Into the full clear bright, Not even sleeping—called to glad awakening in Heaven's endless day.

Not still and moveless—stepped from earth's rough places to walk the King's highway.

Not silent—just passed out of earthly hearing

To sing Heaven's new sweet song; Not lonely—dearly loved and dearly loving amid the white robed throng, and not forgetful—keeping fond remembrance of dear ones left awhile and looking gladly to the bright re-union, with hand clasp and smile.

Oh no! not dead! but past all fear of dying, and with all suffering o'er, say not that she is dead when Jesus called her to live with Him for ever more. 1-22-1930
