

COLE, CHARLES CLIFFORD
October 8, 1884-August 17, 1939

Funeral services were held in Wheatland Sunday at the Masonic lodge for Clifford Cole, 54, former Wheatland resident, who passed away at Buffalo Thursday after an illness of six months. The services were conducted by the Lingle lodge.

Mr. Cole was born October 8, 1884 in Green City, Missouri and was married to Miss Hattie Mae Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Webb of Wheatland, in 1914. Following their marriage, the Coles made their home in Wheatland a number of years before moving to Lingle. They had been residents of Buffalo the past year and a half.

Mr. Cole received his Masonic degree while in Lingle and also belonged to the Wyoming Consistory in Cheyenne and Kalif Temple AAON MS at Sheridan.

Surviving are his widow, two sisters, Mrs. Ora Lucas of Powersville, Missouri and Elizabeth Cole of Kansas City, Missouri; three brothers, Lee of Cleveland, Ohio, John of Midwest and Ora of Newport, Arkansas.

Interment was made in the local cemetery with Watson and Dennis in charge of arrangements.
