

COOK, EILEEN E. BOWEN
February 8, 1913-April 26, 1981

Services for Eileen E. Cook, 68, who died Sunday, April 26 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital, will be held Thursday, April 30 at 10 a.m. at St. Patrick's Catholic Church with Monsignor John Corrigan officiating.

Eileen Bowen was born Feb. 8, 1913 in Denver, Colo., daughter of L.L. and Luella Bowen. She came to the Wheatland area to homestead with her family in 1915. After graduating from school, she taught in various country schools for several years.

She married Don Cook at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Wheatland May 28, 1935. She and Don farmed in the Wheatland area and she was a substitute teacher until her retirement in 1969. She and Don moved into Wheatland in 1970 to spend their retirement years.

She was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, an active member of the St. Patrick's Alter and Rosary Society, of which she was president for two years.

Survivors include her husband, Don of Wheatland; two daughters, Joan Stugart and Donna McGuire, both of Wheatland; three brothers, Joe and Arlo Bowen, both of Wheatland, and Lewis Bowen of Keeline; three sisters, Mary Maul of Wheatland, Charlotte Winburn of Denver, Colo., and Anna Holm of Littleton, Colo.; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Rosary services were held April 29 at 7 p.m.

Burial will be held in the Wheatland Cemetery.

The Schrader-Prell Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.
