

(Ethel) Belle Cook

1-5-1994
Funeral services for (Ethel) Belle Cook, 82, were held Friday, Jan. 7, 1994 at 11 a.m., at the First Christian Church in Wheatland, with Andy Gudahl, Minister, officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Cook died Wednesday, Jan. 5, 1994 at the Life Care Center in Cheyenne. She was born June 27, 1911 in McCook, Neb., the daughter of Harry and Mary (Peters) Marshall. She moved with the family to a farm southwest of Wheatland as a small child, and was reared and educated in the Wheatland area, graduating from Wheatland High School.

On March 14, 1930, Belle married Harold Kenneth Cook in Wheatland. Belle and her husband farmed until the early 1950s, when they moved into Wheatland, and Belle worked at the Golden Rule Store for 25 years.

She resided in Wheatland until 1987 when she moved to Cheyenne, where she was living at the time of her death. Belle was a member of the First Christian Church of Wheatland, and a member of Banner Rebekah Lodge No. 16.

She is survived by her daughter, Billie Lou Gudahl of Cheyenne, three sisters and one brother, Elizabeth Schafer of Twin Falls, Ida., Zoenetta Haberle of Wheatland, Pearl Kissell of Lingle, and Chester Marshall of Wheatland.

Eight grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren also remain.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Harold, on July 11, 1980, a daughter, Roberta Shirlene Mayo, three brothers, Kenneth, Ernest and Alvis Marshall, a sister, Alice Edmonston and one granddaughter.

Serving as pallbearers were Robert Gudahl, Kenneth Gudahl, Michael Gudahl, Don Yeadon, Alvis Marshall Jr., and Steve Hill.

A memorial to the First Christian Church of Wheatland would be appreciated by the family.
