

COOK, VERNON DALE
July 9, 1909-January 29, 1985

Services for Vernon D. Cook, 75, of Casper, were at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 2 at the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel in Wheatland.

Memorial services were held Feb. 3 at 3 p.m. at the Richard Street Christian Church in Casper. Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Cook died Jan 29 at Memorial Hospital of Natrona Co. following a lengthy illness. He was born July 9, 1909 at Torrington. When he was in the sixth grade, he moved with his family to Wheatland where he graduated from High School.

Following his schooling, he began work as a mechanic working at the trade until he was injured on the job in 1959 and was forced to retire.

On Dec. 21, 1932 he married Helen Mills at Wheatland. They made their home in Wheatland and Riverton before moving to Casper in 1965.

He was a member of the Richard Street Christian Church in Casper and the Odd Fellows Lodge at Wheatland.

Survivors include his widow of Casper; two sons, Stuart Cook, Johannesburg, South Africa; and Ronald Cook, Tulsa, Oklahoma; one daughter, Janet Miles of Aberdeen, Idaho; one brother, Kenneth Cook of Wheatland; two sisters; Mrs. Fern Adams, Seattle, Washington; and Virginia Zwieg of Wheatland; seven grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

In lieu flowers, memorials to the Memorial Fund for Mission to South Africa in care of Richard Street Christian Church, will be appreciated.

In Wheatland Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
