

COPLEY, LAURENS WINDSOR SR.
September 23, 1892-September 30, 1941

L.W. Copley, 51, a resident of this community for 26 years, died at the Wheatland hospital at 12:30 a.m. Tuesday. He had been in ill health for a long time, and for several months was in a sanitarium in Basin, Wyo., his family having brought him back to Wheatland Sept. 18th.

Mr. Copley was associated with the undertaking business here for many years until failing health kept him from his duties.

He was born in Hastings, Nebr. Sept. 23, 1892 and was united in marriage to Pluma Bradney, August 24, 1913. He belonged to the Episcopal church and was a member of the Masonic Lodge and O.E.S.

Services were held at the Episcopal church Thursday afternoon, Oct. 2, at 2:30. Rev. W.I. Lockwood officiated and a Masonic service was held at the Wheatland cemetery, the place of interment. Pallbearers were Bill Redfern, Ronald Williams, Dr. L.B. Secrest, Frank Robinson, Elery Bird and Ozzie Kotas.

Survivors are Pluma B. Copley, wife; Bud Copley, son; Mrs. Tommy Shepherd, daughter and a sister.
