

COX, NANCIE KAY EDDLEMAN
August 24, 1942-September 23, 2007

Nancie Kay Cox, 65, died Sept. 23, in Cheyenne.

She was born Aug. 24, 1942, to Jack Eddleman and Betty (Bowman) Eddleman at her grandmother's home in Torrington.

Mrs. Cox graduated from Wheatland High School in 1960.

She married her high school sweetheart, Arnold Cox, on Dec. 31, 1961, in Wheatland.

After living in Arkansas and Wheatland, they moved to Cheyenne in 1971.

She retired from McCormick Junior High school food services after 16 years.

Following her retirement from school, she worked with her husband in the brochure distribution work.

Mrs. Cox spent much time volunteering at the St. Mary's school and church. She was a member of the Cheyenne Bishop's Guild, Cathedral Guild and Altar and Rosary Society.

She is survived by her husband of 45 years, Arnold Cox; three sons, Steven Cox of Bellingham, Wash., David Cox and Kevin Cox, both of Cheyenne; mother, Betty Eddleman of Wheatland; brother, Terry Eddleman of Wheatland; sister, Cathy Evans of Wheatland; six grandchildren; one great grandson; and numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, and many friends.

Vigil for the Deceased will be at 7 p.m. tonight at St. Mary's Cathedral.

Funeral Mass will be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's Cathedral with Father Gary Ruzicka as Celebrant.

Interment will follow in Olivet Cemetery.

Friends may contribute to St. Mary's School.

Services were under the direction of Wiederspahn-Radomsky Chapel of the Chimes.
