

CUNDALL, RUTH FLORENCE TROUPE

January 22, 1898-August 24, 1978

Funeral services were held Saturday, August 26, 1978, for Ruth Florence Cundall at the All Saints Episcopal Church of Wheatland with Father Sid Hoadley officiating. Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery. Mrs. Cundall passed away Thursday, August 24, 1978, at the age of 80 after an extended illness.

Serving as pallbearers were Charles Lawrence, Chet Frederick, Vernon Bomgardner and Abe Foster. Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Ruth Troupe was born to Henry and Josephine Benson Troupe on January 22, 1898 in Chicago, Illinois. She Moved with her family at an early age to Arapahoe, Nebraska where she received her education. She taught school at Madrid, Nebraska where she met E. Paul Cundall. They were married June 22, 1921 in Arapahoe and immediately moved to a ranch near Glendo where she taught school for another year. In 1944 they moved their ranching operations to the Wheatland-Guernsey area.

Ruth was a member of the All Saints Episcopal church, the Laramie Peak CowBelles and the Cottonwood Extension club.

She is survived by a son, Don Cundall of Wheatland; a daughter, Pauline Ruckle of Marlow, Oklahoma; a brother, Edward Troupe of Guernsey, eleven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Paul, in January 1978, and a brother George.

A memorial has been established to the All Saints Episcopal Church.