

CUNDALL, WALTER RICHARD
1898-June 7, 1946

Walter Richard Cundall, 47, of Glendo died at the St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln, Nebr. last Friday following an illness of three months there.

He was born in Stratton, Nebr. and had been a resident of the Glendo community for many years where he was engaged in the ranching business with his brother, Paul Cundall. He was a member of the Hereford association and affiliated with the Episcopal church.

Besides his Myrtle, he leaves two sons, Lee and Glen of Glendo; one daughter, Mrs. Ruth Wakeley of Lovell; two brothers, Paul of Wheatland and Ray of Glendo; two sisters, Mrs. R.B. Bristow of Portland, Ore. and Mrs. Carl F. Marsh of McCook, Nebr. and three grandchildren.

Services were held Wednesday at the Episcopal church in Glendo with the Rev. Howard McNeil officiating. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery with the Schrader home in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were A.M. Downey, James Leech, Verne Martindale, James Gamble, Gordon Wilson and James Vaudrey.
