

5-12-1985
Services for Frances Dorr Bryant Cushing, 91, who died at Laramie May 12, will be held at 1:30 p.m. today in the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel with Rev. Virgil Lamm officiating.

Cushing was born March 8, 1894, in Melrose, Mass., the daughter of W.H.H. Bryant and Dr. Anna Dorr Bryant. She graduated from high school in Melrose and after graduation spent a year in Germany while her mother studied medicine at Berlin University.

She then attended Goucher College in Maryland, graduating in 1916. Following a trip to Japan and China she taught school in Melrose and later in Glendo.

She and Raymond A. Cushing were married on June 28, 1927. They lived in Omaha and Littleton, Colo., while Raymond was a buyer for Swift & Co. They were ranchers in the Iron Mountain and Sybille Canyon area. Frances enjoyed writing short stories and poems and most things life offered.

She was a member of the Wheatland Methodist Church, past president of Chapter R, PEO, and Pi Beta Phi.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.

A memorial in her name has been established to the Laramie Peak Museum.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.