

EBERT, HENRY MAX
October 5, 1865-October 12, 1951

Henry Max Ebert, retired farmer and resident of Wheatland since 1894, died Friday, October 12, after an extended illness.

He was born October 5, 1865 near Dresden, Germany and came to the United States at the age of 19, living for some time in the vicinity of Chicago, where he became a naturalized citizen.

In 1894, he moved from Greeley, Colo. to Wheatland and in 1896, was married to his wife, Stephanie, who survives him. Mr. and Mrs. Ebert made their home east of Wheatland for many years, moving to town in 1939.

Besides his wife, he leaves three daughters, Mrs. Fritz Merback and Mrs. Helen Kemper of Wheatland and Mrs. Louise Burgess of Hayward, Calif.; two step-daughters, Mrs. Fannie Lanning of Wheatland and Mrs. Charles Wolcott of Oakland, Calif.; and eight grandchildren.

Services were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday at Schrader's with Rev. W.J. Hoare officiating. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery. Pallbearers were Henry Geringer, Gus Graefe, Robert Hall, Lloyd Shepard, Frank Robinson and Albert Kemper.
