

EICHLER, ELIZABETH LOFING

June 21, 1891-January 4, 1968

Funeral services for Mrs. William (Elizabeth) Eichler were held Monday, Jan. 8, from the United Church of Christ with Rev. Clare E. Olney officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Mrs. Eichler's grandsons, Jim Dinges, Bennie Lockman, Dick Lockman, Bill Frihauf, Bill Gilbert and John Geringer.

Mrs. Eichler passed away at the Platte County Memorial Hospital Thursday, Jan. 4., following a brief illness. She was born in Russia June 21, 1891 and was married there October 5, 1908 to William Eichler. She was a resident of Windsor, Colo. before coming to this community in 1929.

Survivors in addition to her husband are six daughters, Mrs. Henry Geringer and Mrs. Ben Lockman of Wheatland, Mrs. John Dinges and Mrs. Paul Frihauf, Byers, Colo., Mrs. Lyle Gilbert and Mrs. Lloyd Gilbert, both of Cheyenne; three brothers, Henry Lofing of Wheatland, Pete Lofing of Myrtle Creek, Ore., Alex Lofing, Long Beach, Calif. and a sister, Mrs. David Sterger, Norco, Calif. She was preceded in death by three sons, three daughters and three grandchildren.