

Jill Eugenie Holloway Galgerad

April 7, 1933– March 14, 2008

Jill Eugenie Holloway Galgerud, 74 of Laramie, died Friday, March 14, 2008 at her home. She was born April 7, 1933 in Silver Creek, N.Y., the daughter of Donald and Anna (Chapman) Hilliker. Jill attended the University of Wyoming, later graduating from Chapman College in Orange, Calif.

She married Milton D. Holloway on Dec. 21, 1951 in Laramie. She taught school for several years in McFadden in both public schools and later in her own private kindergarten.

The family moved to Wheatland in 1970 where Jill was employed by the State of Wyoming in the Platte County Department of Family Services until her retirement in 1983. She was listed as a community leader in "Who's who in Government" third edition, and in "Personalities of the West and Midwest" sixth edition. Her first husband died in 1981. She married Ole J. Galgerud in 1983. Upon retirement, she and her husband traveled extensively, spending their winters in Tucson, Ariz. Health concerns contributed to their decision to return to Laramie and to family in 1996.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her first husband, two step-sons and a step daughter-in-law. Jill is survived by her husband Ole Galgerud of Laramie,

Wyo.; a daughter Margaret Meranda and her husband Richard of Laramie, Wyo.; two sons James Holloway and his wife Sandy and Cecil Paul Holloway and his wife Debra all of Wheatland, Wyo.; a step daughter-in-law Doris Holloway of Scottsbluff, Neb.; three step daughters Peggy Curtis and her husband Allen of Salt Lake City, Utah; Jeannie Havemann and her husband Jon of Twin Falls, Idaho; and Connie Lincoln and her husband Rocky of Cheyenne, Wyo.; and grandchildren Russell, Joshua and Carlynn Meranda, all of Laramie, Wyo.; James D. Holloway of Casper, Wyo.; and Tiffany and Kimberlee Holloway of Wheatland, Wyo., as well as many step grandchildren, step great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.
