

GARDNER, MAGGIE EVELINE SNODGRASS

December 2, 1875-November 24, 1901

Maggie E. Gardner, wife of E.A. Gardner, died at her home southwest of town, on November 24th, after an illness of about six weeks. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. G.E. Crater, were held at the home Monday afternoon.

The deceased was born December 2, 1875 in Crawford county, Wisconsin. She was married in Nebraska, which was her home the greater part of her life. After two year residence in Colorado, the family came to this community about three months ago. Mrs. Gardner bore her sufferings patiently and died in the Christian faith. Four little children and a kind husband mourn her loss.

Her sorrowing mother and brother, Mrs. and Mr. Snodgrass arrived from their Nebraska home Wednesday and will remain some time.
