

GARRETSON, ROLAND MALCOLM

September 3, 1921-May 27, 1975

Roland Malcolm Garretson, a resident of Wheatland for the last year, passed away Tuesday, May 27, 1975. He was 53. Funeral services were held Saturday, May 31, 1975 at Schrader's Chapel with Rev. Edward L. Haldy presiding. Mr. Garretson was laid to rest in the Wheatland Cemetery. Chet Marshall, Jack Loomis, William Britton, Ed Cox, Merlin (unreadable) served as pallbearers.

Mr. Garretson, an appliance salesman, was born in Chicago (unreadable) Army as a Technical Sergeant during World War II. A member of the Protestant faith, he had worked with Boy Scouts for a number of years.

He is survived by his wife, Catherine Garretson; a son, Wayne of Bernardsville, New Jersey; two daughters, Mrs. Robert Hyatt of Salt Lake City, Miss Denise Garretson of Bernardsville, New Jersey; three brothers and two sisters.