

3-16 MARY E. GARWOOD 1985

Mary Ellen Gardwood of Harris Park Route, Wheatland, wife of Ralph Garwood, died March 16, after a short illness.

She was born the daughter of William and Rose Hoth in Gresham, Neb. on Jan. 9, 1899.

Mary and Ralph Garwood were married in Bayard, Neb. on Nov. 22, 1917. They moved to Wyoming and homesteaded northwest of Dwyer in 1918 and lived in that area for most years since that time. They were mail carriers on the Harris Park Route for 30 years.

Surviving are their children, Laretta (Mrs. Jim) Roberts of Cheyenne; (W. J.) (Bill) Garwood of Wheatland; Mary Lou (Mrs. Jack) McGuire of Glenrock; and Murrell (R. M.) Garwood of River-ton; also 16 grandchildren and 33 great-grandchildren; sisters Ruby (Mrs. Bud) Preuit of Wheatland; and Ora Klemke of Eugene, Ore.

Preceding her in death were one son, Lawrence; her parents; brothers and sisters.

Funeral services will be held at the First Methodist Church in Wheatland at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, March 20.

Pallbearers will be grandsons Wylie, Clayton and John McGuire of Glenrock, and grand-daughters Rosemary Roberts Corey of Rockford, Ill., Carol Garwood Jones of Cheyenne and Christine Roberts Yearick of Littleton, Colo.