

GERINGER, MARGARET ELIZABETH GRASNICK

November 1, 1877-August 3, 1955

Margaret Elizabeth Geringer, Wheatland resident from 1928 to 1944, passed away August 3, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Zeiler in Brighton, Colo., following an extended illness.

The deceased was born in Lauwe, Russia, November 1, 1877. She had lived in the United States since 1907. She and her husband, the late Gottlieb Geringer who died in 1935, farmed on the Wheatland flats many years. In 1944, Mrs. Geringer went to Colorado to make her home but frequently returned to Wheatland to visit relatives. She was a member of the Evangelical and Reformed church.

Final rites for the deceased will be held in Wheatland Saturday afternoon, August 6, at two o'clock from the Evangelical and Reformed church, with Rev. G.T. Zucher officiating. Burial will be in the Wheatland cemetery beside her husband.

Surviving are five sons, Gottlieb, Henry and John, all of Wheatland; Jake of Greeley and Albert of Denver. Four daughters also remain: Mrs. Mary Martin, Greeley, Colo.; Catherine Zeiler, Brighton, Colo.; Elizabeth Drury, Wheatland; and Helen Reidel, Denver; one sister, Mrs. Christine Meixner, Barthville, Okla.; thirty-six grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren.

The remains were brought to Wheatland by Schrader Funeral coach and will lie in state at the Schrader Funeral Home until the time of the funeral.
