

GOERTZ, ALICE CLARA BAKER

January 11, 1883-October 5, 1983

Services for Alice Clara Goertz, 100, who died Oct. 5 in the Parklane Rest Home in Scott City, Ks., were held at the Methodist Church in Wheatland, Saturday, Oct. 8 at 2 p.m. with the Rev. Virgil Lamm officiating.

Alice Clara Goertz was born in Knightstown, Ind., Jan. 11, 1883. She grew up in Hillsboro, Ks., and married Henry F. Goertz in May of 1901.

They moved to Slater where they farmed until 1936 when due to ill health they retired and moved in to Wheatland. Mr. Goertz passed away in 1954 and Alice moved to Scott City in 1978 where she lived until the time of her death.

Services were held in Scott City, Kansas, Thursday, Oct. 6, with the Rev. Robert Fleenor officiating.

She was a member of the Assembly of God Church in Wheatland.

Survivors include two sons: Allan Goertz of Wheatland and Nelson Goertz of Canon City, Colo., three daughters: Lillian Fleenor of Concordia, Ks., Alice Jewell, of Scott City, Ks., and Florence Milton of Cheyenne.

Besides her husband she was preceded in death by three sons: Claude, John and Henry, by a daughter, Mary Goering, and by a brother, Claude Baker.

Memorial contributions in her name may be made to the Platte County Memorial Hospital Nursing Wing.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
