

GOOD, DOROTHEA LOVE
December 10, 1894-September 16, 1964

Many were saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Reuben (Dorothea) Good on Sept. 16, 1964 in the Platte County Memorial hospital. Although she had been hospitalized for only one day, she had not been well for some time.

Born in Fremont, Nebr. on Dec. 10, 1894 to James and M. Faye Reed Love, the deceased had been a resident of Wheatland since 1918 when she arrived to teach school. She had spent several years previously in Burns, Wyo.

Mrs. Good was active in civic affairs and was past matron of OES, past president of WTK, a member of Dorcas and the United Church of Christ.

Services will be held at the United Church of Christ on Friday at 2:00 p.m., with Dr. H.H. Lindemann officiating and interment will be in the Wheatland cemetery.

Pallbearers will be G.O. Nixson, J.E. Foreman, Howard Fish, J.A. Cole, Darrow Blow and D.W. Hopkins.

Relatives left to mourn include her husband, Reuben W. Good; two sisters, Mrs. Al Laughlin and Mrs. Nellie Beeton, both of Long Beach, Calif., two nieces and one nephew.
