

GOODRICH, ELEANOR HUTCHESON

November 7, 1925-February 4, 1957

In a highway collision early Saturday evening a few miles north of Lusk, Eleanor Hutcheson (Mrs. William W.) Goodrich, 31, was fatally injured, death occurring at 10:30 p.m. Wednesday, September 4 at the Memorial hospital in Lusk.

The body was returned today to the Schrader Funeral home in Wheatland and services will be held at All Saints Episcopal church at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. In lieu of flowers, friends may contribute to the church memorial fund.

Pallbearers will be Harold Garrett, John Wilhelm, Jr., Emerson Utter, Homer Hoffman, James Archie and A.B. Wise.

She leaves her husband; two daughters, Nancy, 9 and Susan, 7; a son, Ralph, 2; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hutcheson of Elmira, N.Y. and a brother, Ralph of Oakland, N.J.

Mrs. Goodrich was a graduate of Keuka college at Keuka Park, N. Y. majoring in sociology, and married in her junior year, her husband remaining in the east while she finished her education. The two then came to Wyoming for the completion of Mr. Goodrich's education and following this they engaged in ranching northwest of Wheatland. She was a member of O.E. S. Chapter Number 11, and the All Saints Episcopal church. She was a lover of music, being a talented pianist.

The Goodriches and their children were en route home Saturday from a month's trip to New York, where they visited the Hutchesons. They were traveling in the family "chuck wagon", but had met Miss Viola Skurdell on the return, and Mrs. Goodrich, Nancy and Ralph were riding with her in her car when another vehicle on the highway collided with them head on.

Miss Skurdell, who taught for three years in the Goodrich school, was also hospitalized in Lusk, but was moved Tuesday evening to the Wheatland General hospital where her condition was reported Wednesday as satisfactory.
