

GORDON, ROBERT
1869-December 23, 1930

Robert Gordon, one of the pioneer residents of the Glendo ranching country, passed away at his home in Mitchell, Nebraska, on Tuesday morning, December 23rd, at the age of 61 years. Mr. Gordon suffered a stroke of paralysis some time ago and has since been in poor health. He formerly resided near Glendo, but for several years past has lived at Mitchell, Nebraska.

Funeral services were conducted at Wheatland on Wednesday afternoon, under the auspices of the local Masonic lodge, of which the deceased was a member.
