

HAZEL EVELYN GRAMES

1984

Services for Hazel Grames, 63, who died April 1 in Casper, will be held Thursday, April 5 in the First Baptist Church in Wheatland with the Reverends Roy Gilliland and Charles Clough officiating.

Hazel Witt Grames was born February 4, 1921, in Cassa, Wyo., the daughter of Bert E. and Lela M. Witt. Reared on the family homestead, she received her education at the Witt School near the family ranch until the time she reached the 7th grade and attended school in Glendo.

The family moved to Wheatland in 1938 where Grames finished high school, graduating in 1941.

She then moved to Cheyenne and worked at the Aircraft Assembly Plant there during the war.

After moving to Oregon briefly, and to Madison, Wis., Grames attended a missionary in St. Louis. She became a missionary and served in Brazil for six years before returning to Wheatland where she worked as an aide and LPN for 20 years at the Platte County Memorial Hospital and Nursing Wing.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church in wheatland.

Survivors include one brother, Raymond Witt of Cheyenne; one sister, L. Alberta Johnson of St. Helens, Oregon; four nieces, four nephews, one great-niece and one great-nephew. Her parents and one brother, Keith, preceded her in death.

A memorial in her name has been established to the Platte County Memorial Hospital and Nursing Wing.

Burial will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
