

GRAVES, JANELA SABINE

July 29, 1932-July 22, 1985

Services for Janela Graves were held Thursday, July 25, at 2:30 P.M. at the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel with Rev. Virgil Lamm officiating. She died in Wheatland July 22.

Janela Graves was born July 29, 1932 in Rome, N.Y., the daughter of Albert and Marion Sabine. She graduated from Rome Free Academy in 1949 and attended New York State Teachers College.

She moved to Wyoming in 1955 and married Dewain Graves in Casper. The family moved to Wheatland in 1979 and she worked for Dr. Robert Horstman.

Survivors include her husband Dewain Graves of Wheatland; three daughters: Doran Graves of Denver, Becky and Debbie Graves of Wheatland; a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Graves of Casper; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sabine of Wheatland, and a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Sabine, Jr. of Puyallup, Washington.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.