

GUILD, ROGER H.
May 23, 1917-April 11, 1962

Graveside rites at 4:30 p.m. on Monday at the Wheatland cemetery were held for Roger H. Guild who died at Kaycee April 11. Louis Maiben was in charge of the services.

Mr. Guild was born May 23, 1917 at Piedmont. He had resided in Kaycee the past seven years, where he worked for the Soil Conservation Service. He graduated from the Lyman, Wyo. high school and from the University of Wyoming. He was a World War II veteran.

Survivors include his wife Mae, and two sons, Fred and Floyd; also three brothers, one of whom is Lorin Guild of Wheatland and four sisters.