

GUTIERREZ, ROBERT TOLEDO

?-April 24, 1951

Robert Toledo Gutierrez, 28, was crushed to death near Wendover Tuesday morning while laying a new section of track on the railroad. He was thrown into the side of a railroad car by a ditching machine, and death was almost instantaneous.

Arrangements in charge of Schraders, are incomplete at this time.