

Services Held At Glendo For Mrs. Jacobsen

2-11-1977
Services were held Saturday, Feb. 13 at St. John the Baptist Episcopal Church in Glendo for Mrs. Johanna Jacobsen, 82, who died Feb. 11 at the Platte County Memorial hospital in Wheatland following a brief illness. Schrader's Chapel of Wheatland was in charge, with the Rev. Stuart Cowles officiating. Burial was at the Wheatland cemetery. Pallbearers were Clayton Russell, Gene Russell, Gordon Wilson, Jim Wilson, Clark Fritz, and Glen Cundall.

Johanna Kirk was born Dec. 23, 1893 in Hanover, Germany. While in her early twenties she traveled to East Africa to work as secretary for her brother. In Africa she was married to Gerhard Jacobsen, in 1912, a native of Denmark. The couple arrived in America in 1915 and lived in Nebraska before moving to Wyoming in 1925. They ranched in the Jay Em area and moved to Glendo in 1936 to a ranch in the Horseshoe Creek community. Her husband died in 1957, and Mrs. Jacobsen moved to Glendo several years ago.

She was a member of the Episcopal Church, Episcopal Women's Guild and the Glendo Community Benefit Club.

Survivors include daughters, Mrs. John (Evelyn) Albanese and Mrs. Harold (Ingeborg) Engle, both of Casper, and three grandchildren.
