Two critically injured passengers from a one car rollover March 11 have been upgraded.

Eight-year-old Kevin Tong who suffer closed head injuries, was still in Intensive Care at Wyoming Medical Center in Casper, Saturday, but hospital officials were hoping to move him onto the pediatric ward later in the week.

Weilun Tong, 6, who is at Children's Hospital in Denver, is expected to be released by the end of the week.

Jeffry Jap, 50, a family friend from Indonesia, who was also critically injured, died Friday afternoon, in Casper. Authorities are still trying to contact his family in Indonesia.
