

Eugene Glenn Johnson

SHERIDAN — Services for Eugene Glenn Johnson, 69, will be Jan. 24, at 2 p.m. at Champion Funeral Home with Arden Haeffner, chaplain of the V.A. Medical Center, officiating. Graveside services will be conducted by the Odd Fellows Lodge. Interment follows in the Odd Fellows section of the Sheridan Municipal Cemetery.

Mr. Johnson died Jan. 17, 1994, at the V.A. Medical Center. He was born in Wheatland on Jan. 12, 1925 to Ira Edward and Bessie Ellen (Brown) Johnson.

Mr. Johnson attended schools in Wheatland and farmed in the area before coming to Sheridan. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II, and was a prisoner of war. On May 23, 1960, he married Helen Beulah Stroup in Fort Collins, Colo.

Mr. Johnson was a boiler engineer at Memorial Hospital of Sheridan County for more than 17 years. He was a member of the Veterans he served as Commander; the Odd Fellows, for which he served as Grand Master of the Wyoming District; the Disabled American Veterans, the International Union of Operating Engineers, and the First United Methodist Church. He also performed many years of volunteer service.

Survivors include his wife; two stepdaughters, Betty Oxley of Casper and Joanne Arnold of Billings, Mont.; one brother, William Johnson of Powell; two sisters, Mary Cox and Lucille Knutson, both of Wheatland; eight grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one brother, Richard Johnson, and one grandson.

Memorials may be made to the Cancer Fund or the Odd Fellows Scholarship Fund, c/o Delphine Toner, First Interstate Bank, P.O. Box 2007, Sheridan, 82801.