

JOHNSON, MARGRETHA RASMUSSEN

October 7, 1879-March 9, 1939

Margretha Rasmussen was born in Denmark, October 7, 1879. Her father passed away when she was five months of age. In 1896 she came to America, locating in Omaha, Nebraska and from there she went to Colorado. On May 21, 1902 she was united in marriage to James Johnson at Cheyenne, Wyoming. They moved to Wheatland in 1905 where they had since made their home. Mr. Johnson preceded her in death on August 18, 1932.

Surviving are two sons Ray and Robert, one grandson, four sisters and other relatives.

Following her profession as expert seamstress, Mrs. Johnson made many friends. Her cheeriness and bright outlook on life, and her keen Danish wit and philosophy will long be remembered by her many friends.

With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand, She has wandered into an unknown land, Leaving us wondering how very fair. It needs must be since she lingers there.
