

JOHNSTON, LUCILLE
1919-1927

Little Lucille Johnston, daughter of F.R. Johnston of northeast of Wheatland, was called home to her Maker early Monday morning after an illness of but a few days.

Wednesday afternoon as a blizzard was brewing, the body of the little girl who died in her seventh year, was laid to rest beside the remains of her mother, and her brother, Harold, who preceded her in death.

Lucille was a pupil in the third grade of the Wheatland schools and ranked third in standing in her class. The faculty of the school and students of both the high school and the grade schools remembered her with a beautiful floral offering and a number of her classmates attended services at the Watson Mortuary Wednesday afternoon.

Besides her father, Lucille leaves two sisters, Evelyn and Dorothy, and a brother, Cecil, to mourn her loss.
