

Gene L. "Casey" Jones

11-27-1988

Memorial services will be held for Gene L. "Casey" Jones, 63, at 2:00 p.m. Friday at the Wheatland Bible Church. Rev. Delbert Dick will be in charge of the service.

Immediately after the service coffee will be served. A private burial will be held at the Wheatland Cemetery.

Gene L. "Casey" Jones was born October 15, 1925 at Wheatland, son of Lester and Esther Jones. He attended Wheatland elementary and high schools and later served 12 years as a member of the school board.

A veteran of World War II, he returned to his former occupation as an employee of the late Glen Nixon. Later he took over the farming operation of his father-in-law and moved to the Slater area where he farmed for 30 years.

Semi-retiring to Yuma, Ariz., he worked as a salesman for various mobile home dealers.

Survivors include his wife Barbara E., daughter Patrice Denisson of Cheyenne, brother Robert L. Jones of Los Angeles, sisters Marjorie Rinker of Hill City, Kan., and Diane Weaver of Aurora, Colo., and two grandchildren, Jennifer and Nicole. Jones was preceded in death by a son, Michael L. Jones.

Jones died at his home in Yuma Sunday, Nov. 27, 1988 after a brief illness.

Memorial services were held Wednesday, Nov. 30 at the Kammann Mortuary in Yuma conducted by the BPOE #476 of which he was a member. He was also a member of the AMF.

Donations can be made to the Sam Isabell Cancer Fund in memory of Casey Jones. Casmer Isabell will accept donations at the Wyoming National Bank.
