

Michael L. Jones

dies at age 20

1-24-1964

This community was deeply saddened last week by the death of Michael Lynn Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene L. Jones. Mike, as he was affectionately known, passed away January 24, 1964 in Presbyterian Hospital, Denver, Colorado of Nephritis. He had been ill about a month.

Born in Wheatland July 16, 1943, he spent 20 full and active years in the Slater and Wheatland communities. At the time of his death he was in his sophomore year at the University of Wyoming, majoring in Agriculture.

As a member of the U. S. Marine Corps, joining through R. O. T. C., following graduation from Wheatland High School in 1961, he spent his summers in training at Quantico, Va., and San Diego, Calif.

Affiliated with the American Sunday School Union, Mike also was a member of Philo Goodrich Chapter of DeMolay, Wheatland.

Left to mourn his passing besides his parents are a sister, Patrice and his fiancée Carol McGill both of Wheatland, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones of Wheatland and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harvey of Yucaipa, Calif.

Last rites were conducted from the First Methodist Church in Wheatland at 2:00 p.m., Monday January 27, with Rev. Vernon Kruse and Rev. Clifford Polson, Sr. officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery, active pallbearers being Sammy Lammey, Jerald Moats, William Hirst, Gary Neve, Ronnie Swan and Mike Bott. Honorary pallbearers were Jack Garrett, Keith Brighton, Dempsey Dietz, Robert Howe, Doug Foe and Warren Wallesen.
