

JUSCHKA, FREDERICK MARTIN

July 29, 1939-July 26, 1992

Services for Frederick Martin Juschka, 52, were held Wednesday, July 29, 1992, at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Wheatland with the Rev. Randall L. Golter, Pastor officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Juschka died Sunday, July 26 at the emergency room at the DePaul Hospital in Cheyenne following a short illness.

He was born July 29, 1939 in Wheatland, the son of Alfred and Leslie (Jessen) Juschka. He was reared and educated in Wheatland, graduating from Wheatland High School in 1957. He was married to Kathleen Niemeyer on March 7, 1964 at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Wheatland. He was baptized in the Trinity Lutheran Church on September 17, 1939 and confirmed on May 31, 1953.

He served in the Army National Guard of Wyoming for six years. He worked with his father on the family dairy farm near Wheatland for several years, serving as a past board of director of the Meda Milk Producers. He continued to farm, developing more farm land and circles in the Wheatland area. In 1990, he started the Bigfoot Trucking Company in Wheatland and Cheyenne, moving to Cheyenne four months ago.

His dream was to go to Belize to develop a fresh prawn farm.

He is survived by his wife, Kathleen of Cheyenne, and his mother, Leslie Juschka of Wheatland. He is also survived by one sister, Linda Wyman of Buffalo, Wyo., and one brother, Vern Juschka of Wheatland.

He was preceded in death by his father on May 8, 1989.

Serving as honorary pallbearers were Clint Dixon, Vic White, Larry Johnston, Bjorn Nilsson, Bill Addison, Sr., Bill Addison, Jr., Odie Warner, Clint Lloyd, Terry Smith and Larry Lebsack.

A memorial to the Fred Juschka Memorial Fund would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.
