

LEE, EMMA SEBERN
1851-September 9, 1914

Mr. and Mrs. S.E. Arnold received a telegram Wednesday announcing the death of Mrs. Arnold's mother, Mrs. E.L. Lee, at Marshalltown, Iowa. Mrs. Lee is a former resident of this place and the body will be brought here for burial, arriving probably tomorrow.

While Mrs. Lee was known to be ill, her condition was considered serious, and the receipt of the telegram was a severe shock. Mrs. Lee had written a letter herself which arrived on the same day the telegram was received.

O.V. Sebern of Meridian, Idaho, a brother of Mrs. Lee, and R.D. Lee of San Francisco, a son, will come to the city to attend the funeral, the date of which will be announced as soon as the remains arrive.

The announcement of the death of Mrs. Lee brings sorrow to many who know her while she resided in Wheatland.
