

LEES, MINNIE IRENE PECK

January 12, 1897-July 1, 1941

Mrs. Minnie Irene Lees, wife of Elmer R. Lees, passed away at the Wheatland hospital Tuesday morning, July 1. Mrs. Lees had been in poor health for some time.

Minnie Irene Lees was born in Rising City, Nebr. January 12, 1897, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Peck. Her early-girlhood was spent on their farm 6 miles north of Rising City. Mrs. Lees graduated from Rising City high school and taught school at Loup City, Nebr., in 1917. She was married to Elmer R. Lees April 5, 1922.

The Lees have been residents of the Glendo community the past nineteen years, her present home being 12 miles southwest of Glendo.

Mrs. Lees is survived by her husband, Elmer R. Lees, 6 sisters and 1 brother. Mrs. Mabel Ellis of Rising City, Nebr., Mrs. Maude Gunderson of Bellwood, Nebr., Mrs. Blanche Miller of Francisberg, Mont., Mrs. O. Wegand of Bellwood, Nebr., Mrs. Ferne Cayne of Tuthil, S.D., Mrs. George McMeekin of Shelby, Nebr. and Harold Peck of Rising City, Nebr.

Services were held from the Methodist church Thursday afternoon at 2:30 with Watson and Dennis in charge and H.N. Waddell officiating. Interment was at the Wheatland cemetery.