

Harold Francis LeMaster

11-27-1980

Harold Francis LeMaster, 58, died Thursday, Nov. 27 in Wheatland.

He was born in Kentucky Dec. 31, 1921, the son of Proctor and Bertha LeMaster. He was raised and educated in Kentucky and left there to enter the U.S. Army during World War II. He was discharged from active duty in Spokane, Wash. While there he met and married Vicki Middleton. The couple lived in Washington for a short time and then Harold became associated with the construction trade.

His work took him to Kentucky, Nevada and other parts of the West. He drove a truck, worked in oil fields and did heavy construction. He moved to Ann Arbor, Mich., in 1966 and worked there until he came to Wyoming two years ago. He worked in Rock Springs before coming to Wheatland last year.

LeMaster was a member of UA Local 190 in Ann Arbor, Mich., a plumber and pipefitter union.

He is survived by his wife, Vicki of Rock Springs and a son, Terry LeMaster of Wheatland. He is also survived by three sisters, Elizabeth Loper and Bernette Thomas, both of Florida, and Marion Tackett of Kentucky; his mother, Bertha LeMaster and three grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his father, an infant son and a daughter, Kathline.

Graveside funeral services were held Tuesday, Dec. 2 at 2 p.m. at the Wheatland Cemetery.

A memorial has been established to the St. Joseph's Home for Children in Torrington.

The Schraader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
