

LINDSEY, EDA B.

August 4, 1909-September 25, 1978

Eda B. Lindsey, 69, of Wheatland, died Sept. 25 at the Memorial Hospital in Cheyenne.

She was born in Sheridan Aug. 4, 1909 and married Joseph A. McGowan, Sr., in November of 1929. They operated the Sheridan Star newspaper before moving to Billings, Mont. for a short time.

They later moved to Grand Island, Nebr. where they owned a newspaper. They later lived in Casper, Worland and Denver, Colo., where they were involved in the newspaper business before they purchased the Green River Star, which they operated until 1951.

The couple lived in Laramie and San Francisco, Calif., where Mr. McGowan died in 1964.

Eda returned to Wyoming and married Brady Lindsey in Douglas in 1969. They lived at the Hornbuckle Ranch until moving to Wheatland two years ago.

She is survived by her husband, Brady Lindsey of Wheatland; two sons, Joseph A. McGowan of Denver and Thomas McGowan of California; a daughter, Mrs. John Shaffer of Wheatland; two sisters, Mary Wille of Rock Springs and Nina Ceretto of Rock Springs; a half-sister, Evabelle Thompson of Sheridan; six grandchildren, and numerous step children, step-grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted on Sept. 28 at 10 a.m. at All Saints Episcopal Church in Wheatland with Father Sidney Hoadly officiating. Burial was at the Wheatland Cemetery.

A memorial has been established to the All Saints Episcopal Church in Wheatland.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
